Three Orchestras To Feature WNTC Booster Program

On Saturday night, November 13, Campus Station WNTC will sponsor the first event on its Fall 1948 booster program, a Sadie Hawkin's Day stag dance at the Civic Center. Featured will be music by three well-known North Country orchestras, Don Gero, the Pastels, and the Varsity. These three organizations will supply continuous music from 9 until 12:30.

Admission to the dance will be by booster ticket only. These tickets may be obtained from any member of the station and will be on sale at the box office on the night of the dance for one dollar. These tickets will also entitle the bearers to admission to all other events on the Fall Booster Program.

WNTC Celebrates Education Week

Campus Station WNTC is broadcasting a series of six special programs to celebrate American Education Week from November 7-13. The programs were prepared by faculty members and pupils of the Congdon Campus School and members of the Radio Workshop department of Station WNTC.

Miss Janet Wenk, a senior at Potsdam State Teachers College, interviewed students of the Campus School, representing grades from kindergarten through eight on Friday. On Monday, eighth graders under the direction of Mrs. Iva Wright, presented a skit entitled "Ready To Go." Later, the station featured a recording based on the general theme for the week, called "There Were Voices In the Land."

Tuesday, eighth grade pupils of the Campus School, together with the school chorus and boys' glee club, presented a musical skit, "Little Red Schoolhouse." Later, the WNTC Radio Workshop, directed by Miss Marguarite Mahoney and Eugene Mueller, presented a skit, "Which Way Is Forward?" based on the daily topic, improving the educational program.

Thursday at 8:55 p. m., the workshop will present another 5-minute skit, entitled "Does It Pay To Be Ignorant?" which has to do with the daily topic of providing adequate finance.
